140 IAC 1-4.5-4 Points accumulation retention

Authority: IC 9-14-2-2

Affected: IC 4-21.5-3-4; IC 9-24-2-3; IC 9-24-10-2; IC 9-30-3-14

Sec. 4. (a) Points assessed for any traffic violation shall become inactive twenty-four (24) months after the administrative assessment date or court conviction date.

(b) A driver accumulating eighteen (18) or more active points, after any credit earned by completion of a defensive driving course, driver safety program, within a twenty-four (24) month period shall be required to appear, upon notice from the bureau, for an administrative hearing. receive a penalty corresponding to the number of active points. When a penalty includes a period of suspension and probation of the person's driving privileges, and a period of probation for the person's driving privileges, the probation shall commence upon the end of the suspension. A driver receiving a penalty under this section has the administrative review rights provided under IC 4-21.5-3. The penalties are as follows:

- (1) Eighteen (18) points will result in twelve (12) months probation.
- (2) Twenty (20) points will result in a one (1) month suspension and eleven (11) months probation.
- (3) Twenty-two (22) points will result in two (2) months suspension and ten (10) months probation.
- (4) Twenty-four (24) points will result in three (3) months suspension and nine (9) months probation.
- (5) Twenty-six (26) points will result in four (4) months suspension and eight (8) months probation.
- (6) Twenty-eight (28) points will result in five (5) months suspension and seven (7) months probation.
- (7) Thirty (30) points will result in six (6) months suspension and six (6) months probation.
- (8) Thirty-two (32) points will result in seven (7) months suspension and five (5) months probation.
- (9) Thirty-four (34) points will result in eight (8) months suspension and four (4) months probation.
- (10) Thirty-six (36) points will result in nine (9) months suspension and three (3) months probation.
- (11) Thirty-eight (38) points will result in ten (10) months suspension and two (2) months probation.
- (12) Forty (40) or more points will result in eleven (11) months suspension and (1) month probation.
- (13) Forty-two (42) or more points will result in twelve (12) months suspension.

(c) If, during any twelve (12) month period, a driver has committed three (3) moving traffic offenses, the bureau may, upon written notice, require the driver to submit to an administrative hearing.

(d) The conviction or judgment for a traffic violation shall remain a part of the driver's record ~~for a period of ten (10) years from the conviction or judgment date even though, for purposes of this rule, the points assessed were invalidated in accordance with this rule.~~ shall become inactive twenty-four (24) months after the court conviction date.

SECTION 2. 140 IAC 1-4.5-10 IS AMENDED TO READ AS FOLLOWS:

140 IAC 1-4.5-10 Point value table*Authority: IC 9-14-2-2Affected: IC 7.1-5-7-7; IC 9-19; IC 9-21; IC 9-24; IC 9-25; IC 9-26-1; IC 9-30; IC 14-15; IC 35-42; IC 35-43-1-2; IC 35-44.1-3-1; IC 35-48-4

Sec. 10. (a) The bureau will periodically update the point value table, as needed, with the assistance of the point study committee. Points assessed in subsection (d), Table 1 shall be for:

- (1) violations of Indiana traffic statutes or local ordinances; or
- (2) out-of-state violations reported to the bureau from any state for which an equivalent offense exists in Indiana.

(b) Requirements for recording conviction records shall be as follows:

- (1) All records of traffic convictions received by the bureau from the court entering judgment or conviction shall be recorded based upon the Indiana Code cite.
- (2) Leaving the scene of an accident under IC 9-26-1 shall be treated as an accident in excess of ~~seven hundred fifty dollars ($750)~~ one thousand dollars ($1,000) requiring a mandatory suspension unless the accident is specifically designated on the record of conviction as less than ~~seven hundred fifty dollars ($750)~~ one thousand dollars ($1,000).
- (3) Suspensions, whether issued by the bureau or a court of competent jurisdiction, shall run concurrently unless the administrative hearing officer or court judge specifically designates that the suspensions run consecutively.
- (4) Property damage or personal injury shall not be presumed to have occurred when assessing points for reckless driving violations unless such property damage or personal injury is specifically indicated on the record of conviction by the court.
- (5) All equipment violations shall be imputed to the driver of the vehicle.

(c) Any traffic violation that is subject to statutory change shall retain the same point designation until the regulations are amended unless such traffic violation is entirely repealed by the statutory change whereby no points shall be assessed for that violation.

(d) Point Value Table 1, establishing the point value system, shall be as follows:
